

Sec. 26-42-1. Receipt of raw furs by fur dealers

No fur dealer licensed under Section 26-42 of the General Statutes, as amended, may accept, receive, buy or sell any raw fur of any beaver, bobcat, wild mink, river otter, red fox, gray fox, or coyote which has not been tagged by Department representatives. For the purposes of this section, raw fur means a pelt which has not been tanned, mounted, or processed in any way.
