

Sec. 20-281-5. New permit holders

A new permit holder, as a condition of renewal of its permit, must undergo a quality review during the first calendar year after it has been engaged in the practice of public accountancy for one full calendar year. After the initial quality review, the new permit holder shall undergo a quality review every three years thereafter.

(Effective May 16, 1990)