

Sec. 31-101-47. Parties; relief

All persons alleged to have engaged in any unfair labor practices may be joined as respondents, whether jointly, severally or in the alternative, and a decision may be rendered against such one or more of the respondents upon all the evidence. The board may award any relief appropriate under law and based on the facts found proven, and shall not be limited to the relief demanded.

(Effective May 7, 1980; Amended October 11, 2013)