

Sec. 1-92-60. Procedures manual

The Office of State Ethics shall promulgate a procedures manual setting out the standard procedures which will be used by the Office of State Ethics in conducting any audit under section 1-96a(b). The manual shall include checklists to be used in connection with the preliminary review of reports, lists of possible errors and omissions, and answers to common questions which the registrant may have regarding the reporting requirements.

(Effective June 16, 1993; Amended January 2, 2008; Amended May 11, 2023)