

Sec. 16-11-44. Operating records

The gas company shall keep appropriate operating records for use in statistical and analytical studies for regulatory purposes. Such records shall include at least the following data: Gas manufactured, produced or purchased; real amount of gas sent out; the amount of coal, oil, electric energy and gas used; and labor charged against the above.