

Sec. 31-255-3. Repayment of benefits paid by the refunding state

Whenever benefits have been paid by the refunding state based on employment or wages paid for employment finally agreed to be covered by the covering state, the covering state will reimburse the refunding state for the aggregate amount of such benefits. Where a worker's base period employment was for two or more employers, the amount to be reimbursed shall be that proportion of the total benefits paid to such worker as his base period wages used by the refunding state in the employment finally determined to be covered under the law of the covering state bears to his total base period wages.

(Effective October 12, 1978)