

Sec. 31-236-35. Discharge or suspension for union activities

The Administrator shall not find an individual ineligible for benefits if it is established that he was discharged for engaging in lawful union activity, regardless of whether or not proceedings under any applicable federal or state labor laws have been instituted.

(Effective June 24, 1986)