

Sec. 4b-3(f)-9. Final decision

(a) Conclusion of appeal

For purposes of section 4b-3(f) of the Connecticut General Statutes, the Board shall be deemed to have heard an appeal, or an appeal shall be deemed concluded on the latter of (1) the date on which the last item of evidence is admitted into the record, (2) the date on which any post hearing legal submissions are accepted by the Board, or (3) the date by which the Board has heard all parties in connection with a proposed final decision.

(b) Within thirty (30) days after the conclusion of an appeal, as defined subsection (a) of this section, the Board shall issue a final decision, and the written decision of the Board shall be a final decision for the purposes of sections 4-180 and 4-183 of the Connecticut General Statutes.

(c) Orders, rulings and decisions

(1) Unless otherwise provided by law, the final decision of the Board regarding an appeal shall be served by personal delivery, or by certified mail, return receipt requested on all parties and intervenors. All other written rulings shall be issued by first-class mail, unless distributed to all parties and intervenors at the hearing, pre-hearing conference, or oral argument.

(2) Unless otherwise provided by law, a ruling, proposed final decision, or final decision shall be deemed issued upon mailing or personal delivery.
