

Sec. 22a-174-16. Responsibility to comply with applicable regulations

(a) Exemption from requirements for registration or permits or possession of a permit to construct or operate or of a variance or approval of a compliance schedule shall not relieve any person of the responsibility to comply with any other applicable regulations or other provisions of federal or state law.

(Effective August 1, 1983)