

Sec. 36a-1-8. Advisory opinions or other legal interpretations

The commissioner or any authorized employee of the department may issue advisory opinions or other legal interpretations regarding any laws or regulations that the commissioner is charged with administering. Such opinions or interpretations may take the form of a no-action letter or confirmation of the applicability of an exclusion or exemption. Requests for written opinions or interpretations of the laws or regulations that the commissioner is charged with administering shall be in writing and shall state the facts and questions of law that are the subject of the request. The commissioner may, in accordance with section 3-125 of the Connecticut General Statutes, submit questions of law to the Attorney General.

(Adopted effective August 31, 2004)