

Sec. 32-167-5. Financial services

The financial services division works with the Connecticut Development Authority and administers the industrial revenue bonding program. The division also administers the state's industrial mortgage insurance plan. It offers cooperative financing to local development corporations for federal Small Business Administration and Economic Development Administration loan programs.

(Effective May 8, 1974)