

Sec. 29-349-246. Blasting caps in congested areas

Only electric blasting caps or commercial detonating fuse shall be used for blasting operations in congested districts, or on highways, or adjacent to highways open to traffic, except where sources of extraneous electricity make such use dangerous.

(Effective December 24, 1987)