

Sec. 31-91-43. Reopening of hearings

Prior to the rendering of an award, a party may move to reopen a hearing for good cause shown such as the emergence of new evidence, but a hearing shall be reopened contingent solely upon the discretion of the panel chairman.

(Effective January 30, 1981)