

Sec. 29-349-150. Removal of explosives

The State or Local Fire Marshal may at his discretion, at any time he deems necessary for public safety, require the removal of any explosives from any location or require that a watchman be placed continuously in charge of same.

(Effective December 24, 1987)