

Sec. 47-65-3. Repairs and improvements to existing buildings

No person shall make any repairs or improvements to an existing building without the written approval of the welfare commissioner. Any person desiring to repair or improve an existing building shall make application in writing to the welfare commissioner and shall furnish suitable plans and specifications, as well as evidence of financial ability to complete such project.