

Sec. 16-11-147. Special measures

Where such generally coordinated methods are insufficient in any specific case, special adequate coordinated measures determined by cooperative consideration shall be applied to the circuits of either or both kinds, to most conveniently and economically prevent the interference.