

Sec. 19-570-12. Identification of communications

Communications should embrace only one matter, should contain the name and address of the communicators and the appropriate identification of the subject matter.

(Effective August 12, 1982)