

Sec. 31-91-52. Purpose and scope of mediation services

Mediation is the use of third party neutrals to assist two contending parties to reach agreement on matters in dispute. The mediation services of the board are available to State employers and employee organizations for purposes of settlement of grievances or mediation of impasses in contract negotiations.

(Effective January 30, 1981)