

Sec. 22a-6b-14. Final decision on a penalty notice

The commissioner shall render a final decision on a penalty notice as follows:

(1) If the respondent is not found to have committed a violation alleged in a penalty notice, there shall be no penalty assessed for such alleged violation.

(2) If the respondent is found to have committed a violation alleged in a penalty notice, the penalty assessed for such violation shall be the penalty stated in such notice, except that the commissioner shall adjust an administrative civil penalty in accordance with both the evidence and the provisions of the department's Administrative Civil Penalty Regulations, provided that the adjusted penalty is not greater than the penalty stated in such notice.
