

Sec. 13b-17-127a. General rule

(a) Petitions and applications placed before the agency pursuant to law, including but not limited to petitions for declaratory ruling, petitions for the adoption, amendment or repeal of regulations and applications for any license, shall include any and all proposals and requests, with all required filings of whatever nature.

(b) The petition or application and annexed materials may be treated by the commissioner as a substantially complete statement of the case in chief of the applicant or petitioner and shall be submitted in accordance with section 13b-17-128a.

(Adopted effective October 6, 1997)