

Sec. 36a-136-9. Confidentiality of conversion application

The converting institution may request the commissioner to keep portions of the conversion application confidential. The converting institution shall separately bind and clearly designate such portions as “confidential” and provide a written statement specifying the grounds supporting the request for confidentiality. The commissioner may keep such portions of the conversion application confidential to the extent permitted by law.

(Adopted effective September 7, 2007)