State Register and Manual

Sec. 3-90-1. Publication and distribution (Repealed)

Repealed August 1, 2024.

(Effective April 23, 1990; Amended September 25, 2009; Repealed August 1, 2024)

Sec. 3-90-2. Retail sale of the Connecticut State Register and Manual

(a) The Secretary of the State may sell copies of the State Register and Manual through an agent or agents engaged in the retail sale of books and/or related materials. Copies sold to such agents shall be discounted 40% from the prices specified in Section 3-90 of the Connecticut General Statutes. No discount may be offered for orders of fewer than five copies.

The foregoing notwithstanding, the discounted unit price cannot be lower than the actual unit cost of production as determined by printer's charges.

(b) Designation of such agents will be made at the sole discretion of the Secretary of the State. All orders from such designated agents shall be placed on the agent's order form and be accompanied by payment for all copies ordered. All sales to such agents shall be final. Unsold items may not be returned for credit or refund.

(Effective September 17, 1992)

Sec. 3-90-3. Hard copy publication of the Connecticut State Register and Manual

(a) Hard Copies Without Charge. The Secretary of the State shall publish the Connecticut State Register and Manual annually on the Secretary's Internet website. The Secretary may, within available appropriations, purchase and distribute freely hard copy volumes of the Connecticut State Register and Manual for the purposes of civic engagement. Additionally, hard copy volumes shall be distributed to the following without charge:

(1) One (1) each to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Comptroller, Treasurer and Attorney General;

(2) One (1) to each member of the Connecticut House of Representatives and Senate; and

(3) One (1) to each member of the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate from this state.

(b) Hard Copies for Sale. Except as described in subsection (a) of this section, no additional hard copy volumes shall be distributed without charge. The Secretary may make additional volumes available for purchase by state agencies, municipalities, and the public at the rates established and under the additional terms specified in section 3-90 of the Connecticut General Statutes. The Secretary shall post notice on the Secretary's Internet website when hard copies are available for sale. The Secretary shall sell volumes in the order in which they are requested, until supplies are exhausted.

(Effective August 1, 2024)
