

Sec. 14-298-722. Meaning of pedestrian indications

The meanings of pedestrian signal indications either lettered or symbolized are as follows:

(a) the don't walk indication, steadily illuminated, means that a pedestrian shall not enter the roadway in the direction of the indication.

(b) the don't walk indication, while flashing, means that a pedestrian shall not start to cross the roadway in the direction of the indication, but that any pedestrian who has partly completed his crossing during the steady walk indication shall proceed to a sidewalk, or to a safety island.

(c) the walk indication, steadily illuminated, means that pedestrians facing the signal indication may proceed across the roadway in the direction of the indication and shall be given the exclusive right of way by the drivers of all vehicles.

(d) the walk indication, while flashing, means that there is a possible conflict of pedestrians with vehicles.
