

Sec. 46a-68-14. Intimidatory or retaliatory acts

Any intimidation, threat, coercion, or retaliation by or with the approval of any sponsor against any person or persons for the purpose of interfering with a right or privilege secured by Title VII of the Civil Rights Acts of 1964, as amended, Executive Order 11246, as amended, Conn. Gen. Stat. sec. 46a-60(a)(4), or because he or she had made a complaint, testified, assisted or participated in any manner in any investigative proceedings or hearings under this regulation or under the regulations issued by the commission on human rights and opportunities pursuant to Connecticut's human rights and opportunities laws shall be considered noncompliance with the equal opportunity standards of this regulation. The identity of complainants shall be kept confidential except to the extent necessary to carry out the purpose of this regulation including the conduct of any investigation, hearing or judicial proceeding arising therefrom.
