

Sec. 20-90-49. Records

The nursing education program shall maintain a system of administrative records that shall include current course outlines and evaluation instruments, faculty personnel records, faculty meeting and committee meeting reports, student records, pertinent correspondence, pertinent reports, and official publications of the nursing education program.

(Effective November 29, 1983; Amended May 4, 2004)