

Sec. 16-11-123. Laboratories

Each electric company shall maintain adequate laboratories, meter testing shops, secondary standards, instruments and facilities to determine the accuracy of meters and measuring devices generally used by the electric company in rendering service. An electric company may, however, have all or part of the required tests made or its portable testing equipment checked by another electric company or agency approved by the commission as having adequate testing equipment.