

Sec. 31-11a-14. Determinations

(a) The administrator shall apply these regulations and the substantive provisions of the General Statutes in the determination of an individual's entitlement to dislocation allowance or reemployment assistance. As to matters not otherwise specifically provided for in these regulations or section 31-11a of the Connecticut General Statutes, the administrator shall follow the applicable provisions of the Connecticut Unemployment Compensation Law and Regulations, including any procedural requirements of that law or its regulations, except where inconsistent with these regulations or section 31-11a of the Connecticut General Statutes.

(b) Redeterminations. A determination under paragraph (a) of this section may be reconsidered by the administrator under the same terms and conditions as a determination on a claim for unemployment compensation under Chapter 567 of the Connecticut General Statutes

(c) Written notification. The administrator shall notify the individual in writing of any determination or redetermination as to entitlement to dislocation allowance or reemployment assistance. Each determination or redetermination shall inform the individual of the right to reconsideration or appeal in the manner provided for in section 31-11a-15.

(Effective August 18, 1980)