

Sec. 31-3s-3. Change in status; continuing eligibility

(a) Notification by participant of change in status. Whenever a program participant notifies the Job Center that there has been a change in circumstances and the program participant and/or the Job Center believes that he is no longer employable and/or job ready, the Job Center may refer the individual back to the local General Assistance office for a re-evaluation of employability status and/or the Job Center may re-evaluate the individual as to his job ready status.

(b) Notification by General Assistance office of possible change in status. Whenever a local General Assistance office makes a determination or obtains information which effects a change in the participant's status, the local General Assistance office shall notify the Job Center of such change in status.

(c) Notification by Job Center of possible change in status. Whenever a Job Center obtains information which could lead to a determination that a program participant: (1) has failed to accept an offer of employment without just cause, or (2) has accepted employment and subsequently quit his job voluntarily and without sufficient cause, or (3) has been discharged for cause as set forth in subparagraph (B) of subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of section 31-236 of the general statutes, the Job Center shall notify the referring local General Assistance office of such information. Determination of eligibility or ineligibility for General Assistance benefits as a result of one of the foregoing circumstances shall be the sole responsibility of the local General Assistance office.

(Effective March 30, 1993)