

Sec. 9-242-11. Hardware standards. Vote recorder

Vote recorders which utilize ballots to be processed by general purpose card readers shall comply with industry standards for punch configuration and location. Otherwise, they shall produce punched or marked ballot cards in any manner which is compatible with their parent system.

(Effective February 23, 1994)