

Sec. 31-255-6. Unexpired benefit years

If at the time a transfer of contributions to another state is in process, the refunding state is paying benefits to claimants whose wages or employment do not constitute wages or employment under the law of the refunding state, but that of the covering state, the claims shall be completed by the refunding state before billing the covering state for benefits paid.

(Effective October 12, 1978)