

Sec. 29-152o-8. Suspension or revocation of a bail enforcement agent's license

(a) Any bail enforcement agent's license may be suspended or revoked by the Commissioner of Public Safety, provided notice shall have been given to the licensee to appear before the commissioner to show cause why the license should not be suspended or revoked, upon a finding by the commissioner that:

(1) The licensee has violated any of the terms or provisions of sections 1 to 10, inclusive, of public act 97-287 or sections 29-152o-1 to 29-152o-8, inclusive, of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies;

(2) The licensee has practiced fraud, deceit or misrepresentation;

(3) The licensee has made a material misstatement in the application for issuance or renewal of his license;

(4) The licensee has demonstrated incompetence or untrustworthiness in the conduct of his business;

(5) The licensee has been convicted of a felony or other crime affecting his honesty, integrity or moral fitness.

(b) Any party aggrieved by an order of the commissioner under subsection (a) of this section may appeal therefrom in accordance with the provisions of section 4-183 of the Connecticut General Statutes, except venue for such appeal shall be in the judicial district of Hartford-New Britain.

(c) In accordance with the provisions of section 4-182(c) of the Connecticut General Statutes, if the Department of Public Safety finds that public health, safety or welfare imperatively requires emergency action, and incorporates a finding to that effect in its order, summary suspension of a bail enforcement agent license may be ordered pending proceedings for revocation or other action.

(Adopted effective October 1, 1997)
