

Sec. 29-349-295. Storage building requirements

Storage buildings shall not be over one story in height or have basements, unless approved for such use, and shall be equipped with lightning rod protection.

(Effective December 24, 1987)