

Sec. 38a-334-3. Language of policies. Presumption re coverage

The provisions herein required need not be stated in the language or form of these regulations, but the coverage afforded shall be of equal or greater benefit to the insured. Policies affording a coverage to which these regulations apply shall be deemed to afford insurance under such coverage at least equal to that required by these regulations.

(Effective September 25, 1992)