

Sec. 31-236-3. Suitable work—usual occupation or work for which one is reasonably fitted

(a) Suitable work means either work in an individual's usual occupation or work for which he is reasonably fitted. Usual occupation is work which the individual has performed for an appreciable period of time. Short-term employment performed sporadically or incidentally shall not be considered by the Administrator in determining an individual's usual occupation.

(b) Work for which the individual is reasonably fitted means work which the individual can do or be readily trained to do considering his prior training, education, experience, and skills.

(Effective June 24, 1986)