

Sec. 51-275a-2. Description of organization

The Criminal Justice Commission was established by virtue of Conn. Const. Amend. Art. XXIII and Conn. Gen. Stat. Sec. 51-275a (a). The Commission is composed of the Chief State's Attorney and six members nominated by the Governor and appointed by the General Assembly. Two of the members of the Commission are judges of the Superior Court. One of the members of the Commission is appointed by the Governor as Chairman. The Commission is responsible for the appointment and discipline, unless otherwise provided by collective bargaining agreement, of attorneys in the Division of Criminal Justice, according to law.
