

Sec. 13b-50p-6. Finding of a violation

If the Commissioner determines that there is a violation of section 13b-46 of the Connecticut General Statutes, he shall immediately take the necessary action against the property owner to suspend all landings and takeoffs at the site in accordance with the laws of this state. Upon such a determination by the Commissioner, the property owner may suspend keeping an activity log.

(Effective October 6, 1998)