

Sec. 31-91-33. Principal spokesperson

Each party shall be represented at the hearing by a principal spokesperson who shall present his party's case. The principal spokesperson may be an attorney or other authorized representative.

(Effective January 30, 1981)