

Sec. 47-65-4. Buildings become part of tribal reservations

All buildings erected upon a tribal reservation by a tribal member shall be subject to the care, control and management of the welfare commissioner and, unless authority for future removal has been given by the welfare commissioner at the time of erection, shall be considered affixed to and a part of the reservation.