

Sec. 14-111g-2. Operator retraining program

(a) The Commissioner may require any motor vehicle operator older than twenty-four (24) years of age on the date convicted of a third moving violation, suspension violation, or a combination of both, as appearing on such operator's official driving history as maintained by the Commissioner, to attend and successfully complete an operator retraining program as provided in section 14-111g-3 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies.

(b) The Commissioner may require any motor vehicle operator twenty-four (24) years of age or less on the date convicted of a second moving violation, suspension violation, or a combination of both, as appearing on such operator's official driving history as maintained by the Commissioner, to attend and successfully complete an operator retraining program as provided in section 14-111g-3 of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies.

(c) The Commissioner may send a warning letter to a motor vehicle operator older than twenty-four (24) years of age who has been convicted of moving violations or suspension violations or a combination of both, committed on two separate occasions, or in the case of an operator twenty-four (24) years of age or less who has been convicted of a single moving violation or suspension violation, advising such operator that a subsequent conviction of a moving violation or suspension violation will require participation in the operator retraining program.

(d) Following an operator's successful completion of the operator retraining program, each additional conviction for either a moving violation or suspension violation, which appears on the operator's official driving history as maintained by the Commissioner and places the operator above the number of convictions stipulated in section 14-111g-2(a) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies for an operator over twenty-four (24) years of age, or as stipulated in section 14-111g-2(b) of the Regulations of Connecticut State Agencies for an operator who is twenty-four (24) years of age or less, will require the operator to repeat the operator retraining program.

(e) Failure to attend or successfully complete the operator retraining program shall result in suspension of the operator's license or operator's privilege until the operator successfully completes the program.

(Adopted effective October 25, 2002; Amended November 1, 2011)