

Sec. 1-81-23. Disclosure of necessary expenses; filing requirement, filing date

Pursuant to section 1-84(k) of the Connecticut General Statutes, a public official or state employee who accepts payment or reimbursement of necessary expenses for an article, appearance, speech or participation in an event in his or her official capacity shall disclose such to the Office of State Ethics, if it includes payment or reimbursement for lodging or out-of-state travel or both. Any required disclosure must be received by the Office of State Ethics within thirty days of the individual's receipt of payment or reimbursement. No disclosure shall be required, however, when the payor is the federal government or another state government.
